

Natalie Holt, MD

City: Rosebud

Specialty: Anesthesiology and Preventive Medicine/Public Health

Certification: American Board of Anesthesiology and American Board of Preventive Medicine

Work Address: 400 Soldier Creek Drive, Rosebud, SD 57570

Professional Background: Natalie Holt, MD, MPH is the Chief Medical Officer for the Great Plains Area Indian Health Service. Prior to joining IHS in 2019, she was a staff anesthesiologist and Medical Director of the Ambulatory Procedures Unit at the Veterans Affairs Connecticut Healthcare System in West Haven, CT. In addition to her work with the Indian Health Service, she is also a Field Surveyor for The Joint Commission. Dr. Holt is a Clinical Assistant Professor with the Department of Surgery at the University of South Dakota School of Medicine and remains active in medical education. She serves as an editor and contributor to several textbooks of clinical anesthesiology as well as a section editor for the online medical resource UpToDate. Dr. Holt received her medical degree from the Yale School of Medicine and a Masters of Public Health degree from the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health. She is board certified in Anesthesiology and General Preventive Medicine.